Trouble the Water -- Join us for a community viewing of this astonishingly powerful documentary that takes you inside Hurricane Katrina in a way never before seen on screen. Incorporating remarkable home footage shot by Kimberly Rivers Roberts—an aspiring rap artist trapped with her husband in the 9th Ward—directors/producers Tia Lessin and Carl Deal (producers of Fahrenheit 9/11 and Bowling for Columbine) weave this insider's view of Katrina with a devastating portrait of the hurricane's aftermath. It's not only about the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina, but about the underlying issues that remained when the floodwaters receded, going beyond survival.

There are many lessons to be learned from viewing this film. Most importantly is that none of us go it alone. And with the San Francisco Fire Department's NERT program we can face difficulties by working together; by pooling our many resources to go beyond capabilities of any single resident; and, by acting in concert -- it is your survival, as well as the survival of our City by the Bay.
